3 Examination of Life Capital Group, LLC and Its Subsidiaries and Affiliates Pursuant to Fed. R.
4 Bankr. P. 2004 [Relates to Docket Nos. 468, 482, 523, 555, 581, and 585]” (the “Stipulation”) [Dkt.
5 586] by and between Bradley D. Sharp (the “Trustee”), the duly appointed trustee for the chapter
6 11 estate of Leslie Klein (the “Debtor”), and Life Capital Group, LLC (“Life Capital,” and together
7 with the Trustee, the “Parties”), by and through their undersigned attorneys, and pursuant to Rule 8 26(c) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, incorporated herein by Rule 7026 of the Federal 9 Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure, finds good cause and hereby APPROVES the Stipulation [Dkt.
10 586] and enters this Protective Order (the “Order” or “Protective Order”) as set forth herein.

11       This Order shall govern the production, review and handling of Confidential Material (as 12 defined below) by the Parties (as defined below) in this “Bankruptcy Case,” which is hereafter 13 defined as the above-captioned bankruptcy case (No. 2:23-bk-10990-SK). The purpose of this 14 Order (i.e., the “Good Cause Statement”) is to expedite the flow of information, to protect 15 confidential material, to ensure that the Parties are permitted reasonable, necessary use of such 16 material, to protect the Parties hereto against the waiver of any privileges or protections, including, 17 without limitation, the attorney-client privilege, work-product protection, and any other applicable 18 privilege, protection, or immunity attaching to those documents, and to address the handling of 19 such material at the end of the Bankruptcy Case. The Court enters this Order setting forth the 20 conditions for treating, obtaining, and using such information.

- 21       1.       As used herein, Confidential Material means:
- 22               (a)      All documents marked by Life Capital as “Confidential.”
- 23               (b)      All documents (including, without limitation, data, reports, and records) that 24                          the Trustee substantially derives from the information described in 25                          Paragraph 2(a); and
- 26               (c)      All reproductions of information described in Paragraphs 2(a) or Paragraph 27                          2(b).
- 28       2.       The term “Confidential Material” does not include information that:

- (a) Either is or becomes publicly available and that did not become publicly available by being disclosed by Life Capital or its agents;
  - (b) Was available to the Trustee or the Debtor on a non-confidential basis before Life Capital disclosed the information to the Trustee; and
  - (c) Lawfully becomes available to the Trustee on a non-confidential basis and through a means other than through a breach of this Agreement.

3. As used herein, the term, Confidential Material shall mean and include, but not be limited to each and every document marked "Confidential" and produced in response to the Rule 2004 Motion, including all originals and copies of documents, tapes, CDs or in any form, including documents reproduced or derived therefrom.

4. Confidential Material produced pursuant hereto shall be subject to the restrictions contained herein and, subject to the right of any other party to seek an order from the Court that the material should not be subject to such restrictions.

5. Disclosure and use of the Confidential Material shall be restricted to the Trustee and his advisors, and any other persons or entities identified herein, including the U.S. Trustee and employees of them, to whom it is reasonably necessary to disclose the Confidential Material for this Bankruptcy Case and any signatories to the "Acknowledgment And Agreement To Be Bound" attached hereto as Exhibit 1 to this Stipulation.

6. Disclosure of Confidential Material is allowed to: attorneys in the firms that are or become litigation counsel to the Trustee for this Bankruptcy Case and to those signatories to the "Acknowledgment And Agreement To Be Bound" attached hereto as Exhibit 1 to this Stipulation; and to stenographic, clerical and other employees of those aforementioned individuals or firms whose functions require access to the Confidential Material.

7. To experts or consultants engaged by the Trustee provided that prior to the initial disclosure of Confidential Material to any such expert or consultant, counsel for the party receiving the Confidential Material advise the retained expert of the confidential nature of the documents and such experts or consultants sign the "Acknowledgment And Agreement To Be Bound" attached hereto as Exhibit 1 to this Stipulation.

1       8.     Each person to whom disclosure of Confidential Material is made shall be advised 2 by the attorney retaining such expert of, and become subject to, the provisions herein.

3       9.     Each person, including counsel, to whom disclosure of Confidential Material has 4 been made, shall maintain any such material in a safe and secure fashion at all times so as to preserve 5 the confidentiality of the material.

6       10.    Any document containing any summary or recitation of any part of the content of 7 confidential material also shall be deemed to be Confidential Material and subject to all the 8 protections and restrictions in this Stipulation.

9       11.    Meet and Confer. In the event that the Trustee objects to any specific Life Capital
10 document designation as “Confidential Material,” the Trustee shall advise Life Capital, in writing, 11 of such objections, the specific documents to which each objection pertains, and the specific reasons 12 and support for such objections (the “Designation Objections”). Thereafter, further protection of 13 such material shall be resolved in accordance with the following procedures:

14       (a)    The Trustee shall have the burden of conferring either in person or by 15 telephone with Life Capital in a good faith effort to resolve the dispute. Life Capital shall have the 16 burden of justifying the disputed designation;

17       (b)    Failing agreement, the Trustee may bring a motion to the Court for a ruling 18 that the Confidential Material designation in question is not entitled to the status and protection of 19 the Life Capital’s designation. The Parties’ entry into this Order shall not preclude or prejudice
20 either Party from arguing for or against any designation, establish any presumption that a particular 21 designation is valid, or alter the burden of proof that would otherwise apply in a dispute over 22 discovery or disclosure of information;

23       (c)    Notwithstanding any challenge to a designation, the document(s) in question
24 designated as “Confidential Material” shall continue to be treated as designated under this Order 25 until one of the following occurs: (i) Life Capital withdraws such designation in writing; or (ii) the 26 Court rules that the document(s) in question designated as “Confidential Material” is/are not 27 entitled to the designation.

1           12. Upon final termination or resolution of all issues between the Debtor's estate and 2 Life Capital, including all appeals, and at the request of the Life Capital, counsel for the party
3 receiving the Confidential Material shall return all original Confidential Material produced by Life
4 Capital or certify its destruction.

5           13. No action in accordance with the provisions of this Stipulation, nor the failure to 6 object thereto, shall be construed as a waiver of claim, objection, or defense.

7           14. By producing Confidential Material, the parties do not waive and expressly retain 8 the right to assert the application of any common law or statutory privileges or any theory of 9 immunity from disclosure of private confidential information.

10          15. This Stipulation shall not abrogate or diminish any contractual, statutory, or other 11 legal obligation or right of any party with respect to the Confidential Material and the information 12 contained therein.

13          16. In the event anyone shall violate or express an intention to violate any term of this 14 Stipulation, the aggrieved party may immediately apply to obtain injunctive, or other relief against 15 any such person violating or threatening to violate any of the terms of this order.

16          17. Upon receipt of a subpoena or other legal demand by any party, which may require 17 the Trustee to turnover Confidential Material, the Trustee will give at least (10) ten days notice to 18 Life Capital to allow Life Capital to take any action it deems appropriate.

19          18. Any party-in-interest to this Bankruptcy Case that either signs this Stipulation or 20 signs the "Acknowledgment And Agreement To Be Bound" that is attached hereto as Exhibit 1 21 agrees to be bound by this Stipulation, including any natural person, partnership, corporation, 22 association, or other legal entity not named as a party to this Bankruptcy Case, including all of its 23 officers, directors, employees, partners, members, managers, and advisors.

24          19. Absent a court order secured after appropriate notice to all interested persons, the 25 Trustee must seek from the Court permission to file such Confidential Material under seal pursuant 26 to 11 U.S.C. section 107, LBR 5003-2(c), and/or Bankr. C.D. Cal. Court Manual section 2.8(b), as 27 applicable. The parties acknowledge that Confidential Material may only be filed under seal 28 pursuant to a court order authorizing the sealing of the specific Confidential Material at issue. In

1 connection with a party's motion to seal, the moving party will note Life Capital's approval to file
2 under seal, if any. If the application for relief is denied, the Trustee may file the Confidential
3 Material with the Court unless otherwise instructed by the Court.

4       20. This Order is subject to further court order based upon public policy or other
5 considerations, and the Court may modify this Order sua sponte in the interests of justice. This Court
6 is responsible for the interpretation and enforcement of this Order. All disputes concerning 7 Confidential Material, however designated, produced under the protection of this Order shall be 8 resolved by the Court. In the event anyone shall violate or threaten to violate material terms of this 9 Stipulation, the aggrieved Party may immediately apply to obtain injunctive relief against any such 10 person violating or threatening to violate any of the terms of this Stipulation.
